Supplement

Narrative #19: Supplemental by P. Trejo #372 Statement from [REDACTED]

KINGS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
Supplemental Narrative

At about 0130 hours, I made contact with the employees from the taco truck. I asked if anyone had witnessed the shooting and one female stated yes. She identified herself as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and she was working the cash register at the time of the shooting.

[REDACTED] said she saw when the male subject was running on Jersey Avenue, and he fired a round. When I asked her who the male was that she saw shooting a gun, she stated it was the same male that was laying on the ground. Due to the noise level surrounding the taco truck, I asked [REDACTED] if she could meet with me inside the command post. [REDACTED] became nervous stating she did not feel comfortable doing so. [REDACTED] later told me she was afraid and did not want any problems with the people from the reservation.

I asked her if she would be willing to meet with me at a different location on a different date and she said yes. She provided me with her boss's cell number as she does not have a cell phone. Her boss is [REDACTED] who was on scene. [REDACTED] told me [REDACTED] lives with him and his wife and she can be contacted on his cell phone.
