Narrative #21: Supplemental Narrative by: J. Shortnacy

KINGS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
Supplemental Narrative

On Saturday, March 11, 2023, at approximately 2204 hours, I was driving a fully marked Kings County Sheriff's Office patrol vehicle and wearing a Kings County Sheriff's Office Patrol Deputy uniform. I responded to Tachi Palace Hotel and Casino, 17225 Jersey Avenue, for a report of a subject brandishing a handgun.

While en route, deputies already on the scene advised shots were fired at them by the suspect, and they returned fire, striking the suspect. For further details, please refer to Senior Deputy Brewster's main narrative.

I arrived on the scene and assisted Deputy Rapozo in checking for additional shooting victims at the direction of Senior Deputy Chavez. Deputies line of fire was to the north, where a taco truck was conducting business at the intersection of Jersey Avenue and 17th Avenue.

After determining the scene was safe, and there were no victims or damage at the taco truck, I went to Yokut Gas Station, 17051 Jersey Avenue, to have the manager close the gas station while Deputies conducted an investigation.

After speaking to the Yokut Gas Station manager, I began taping off the surrounding crime scene with yellow caution tape. Timothy was then taken to Fresno Community Regional Medical Center (CRMC) by sky life. I drove to CRMC to provide medical updates to Senior Deputy Brewster until relieved by Deputy Bernardo.

Recommendations:

Attach to the main narrative.
